INSTRUCTIONS TO PARENTS

Preparations to receive the sacraments is of paramount importance and parents have the responsibility to see that:

- Their children will attend regularly for the classes;
- That they will be a few minutes early so that they will not disrupt the class by being late;
- That their children are doing ALL the work that they are given by their teachers, and that it is done well.

If your child will be absent for a considerable number of lessons, he/she will not be allowed to receive First Holy Communion.

If your child will be disrupting the class, you will be called to meet with the Pastor, and if after this meeting your child will carry on disrupting the class, he/she may not be allowed to attend anymore classes and therefore he/she will not be allowed to receive First Holy Communion.
