STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Every Christian by virtue of their baptism is called to be a disciple of Christ, to share in Christ's mission to proclaim the good news to all people of the Earth. We hear from St Paul in the second reading today that "God choose us in him before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him." God calls us to be holy, and one of the ways we do this is by sharing our gifts which has been so generously given to us to build the Kingdom of God. When Jesus sends the Apostles in today's Gospel, He doesn't send them because of their great abilities or qualifications. Rather, the men he chooses and sends were a group of unlikely fishermen and tax collectors. With nothing but a walking stick in their hand and sandals on their feet, Jesus gives these men the authority to do great deeds in his name, to drive out demons and heal the sick. With both their physical needs and spiritual needs, the Apostles relied totally on the providence of God to sustain them in their mission. This command from Jesus to go forth in his name continues today. At the end of every Mass, we hear from the priest "go forth, the Mass is ended." This is not simply a conclusion, but rather a reminder to all present there like the apostles, we too are called forth to proclaim the good news. Like the Apostles, we may not be the most qualified, and yet Christ still calls us and qualifies us through his grace. What are the gifts that we have which we can offer to others as good Christian stewards?

We are called to be disciples of Christ, to be holy, and to share in Christ's mission of proclaiming the Good News to all people of the world. It was through God's grace alone that the Apostles are sent two by two by Jesus and able to preach, heal, and drive out demons. Although we may not be called to do great miracles as the Apostles did, we are called to go forth and build up the Church through the sharing of our time and talents.

VOCATION REFLECTION

In today's first reading Amos says he did not choose to be a prophet; God selected him. Maybe God is asking you to consider what you are doing at this time and perhaps begin the special work He has for you. If you feel God may be selecting you for the special life of priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.
