I hope this message finds you well and enjoying the warmth of summer. As we cherish this season, I wanted to share some important updates and upcoming events within our parish community:

Summer Greetings and Family Time: We trust you are relishing the longer days, perhaps spending time with loved ones, and creating beautiful memories. Summer provides a wonderful opportunity to connect with family and friends, and we encourage you to make the most of these moments.

Mission Co-op Collection: Last week, your generosity shone brightly as we collected $790.00 for the Mission Co-op. Your contributions directly affect those in need, and we extend our heartfelt gratitude for your support.

Needs of the Canadian Church Collection: This coming weekend, we will take up a special collection to support the needs of the Canadian Church. Your donations play a vital role in sustaining our faith community and its ministries.

Bus Trip to Our Lady of Victory (Buffalo, New York): Exciting news! There are still available spaces for our bus trip to the beautiful Our Lady of Victory shrine in Buffalo, New York. If you're interested in joining this pilgrimage, please contact the parish office promptly to secure your spot.

Annual Cemetery Mass: On Wednesday, August 14th, we will gather for our annual cemetery Mass at Assumption Cemetery in Mississauga. Let us come together to honour our departed loved ones and seek solace in our shared faith.

Assumption of Mary Feast Day: Thursday, August 15th, marks the Assumption of Mary - a day of profound significance. We celebrate Mary's Assumption into Heaven and her powerful intercession on our behalf. Following the 9:15 am Mass, join us in the parish hall for a reception. This occasion also provides an opportunity to bid farewell to Keith, Lucas, and Andrew, who have been part of our parish community. We express our gratitude for their presence and wish them well in their future endeavours.

Save the Date: Parish Feast Day Celebration (September 28th): Mark your calendars for September 28th! Our parish feast day awaits—a time for joy, fellowship, and celebration. Details about the dinner and dance will follow soon. Let us come together as one family to rejoice in our faith and community spirit.

Thank you for being an integral part of our parish family. Your commitment, prayers, and active participation enrich our shared journey of faith. May God's blessings be upon you and your loved ones.

- Fr. Roy
